Vindication of Mr. A. G. Ransom. To the Editor of The Tribune :

The Editor of The Tribune:

I was pained on reading the article in The Tribune of Saturday last, over the signatures of two respectable citizans of Greene, to find an allusion to A. G. Ransom Eaq. formerly of that place, calculated to injure his requisition out of the vicinity where all the facts and circumstances may not be known. Having had a conversation with the Hon. Counsel opposed to Mr. Ransom in the Chancery suit of which I shall speak, I became somewhat familiar with the facts and circumstances out of which are so the holdernest mentioned in said article. They are substantially as follows; Mr. Ransom held a claim against an individual in Broome County of about $1,000. BOARDING.—Respectable and intelligent persons can be accommodated with single rooms and board, with all the comforts of a quiet house and select circle, at No. 24 Barclay-st. on moderate terms. There is no smoking in the house. Also one parlor and bedroom attached for a gentleman and lady.

Asylum would express their most graneful acknowledgements for the receipt of $650, the avails of the Fair recently held in the Broadway Taternacle, projected and carried on ty the colored friends of the stablishment. This timely assistance can hardly be too highly appreciated, the institution having of inte been much embarrased with and the pressing demands of 144 children, occasioning deep solicitude on the part of the directors.

The residue of the articles, consisting of a veriety of near fancy work, &c. with a fine donation of cake for the children, was also received.

The neat proceeds of the Fair amounted to $709-$50 of which has been reserved for the Aged Colored Home.

The managers would also acknowledge the receipt of $22 from a tittle colored girl, a few weeks since, who has gone from door to door to make this collection.

Also, 25 blas of New-Year's cake, by a little boy, bought with the contents of his money box, which he had saved a year for this purpose. man and lady.
